
Informations from Bábolna!

The Hungarian National Stud Farm of Bábolna continues to be owned by the nation of Hungary. This status was confirmed by the Hungarian Parliament in November of 2007 at the request of the management in charge of the Bábolna National Stud Farm at that time. The Bábolna Stud currently welcomes visitors as it has in the past, and a list of horses for sale is also available.

Although Hungarian newspapers have reported that there may be preparations underway to manage the finances of the Bábolna Stud and its properties differently, the fight to maintain the horse breeding program is not yet over!

*The staff at the Bábolna Stud, the hotel, and the restaurant there cordially invite your visit!
